

Youth News and Plans

By JOHN M. SWOMLEY, JR.

TWO week-end pacifist retreats have recently been held, one in the Boston area and the other in Washington, D. C. At the Greater Boston retreat Kirby Page and John Magee were the leaders and in Washington, James L. Farmer, Jr., and John M. Swomley, Jr. An Ohio Pacifist Youth Conference was held at Ahimsa Farm, Aurora, Ohio, February 8 and 9 with sixty students from several universities participating. A very constructive program of speeches, discussions, spiritual meditation and recreation was carried out.

Marion Kline, one of our fine Fellowship folks in the West has recently taken a trip from Salt Lake City to various places in Idaho, specifically to meet with pacifists in order to help them strengthen the bonds of fellowship. She visited Boise and Caldwell as well as other cities and towns.

During March and part of April, the National Youth Secretary will be travelling in the Rocky Mountain and West Coast areas. His itinerary will take him through Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Idaho, Montana, Washington, Oregon, California and Arizona.

New Youth Secretaries

At the last meeting of the Executive Committee it was voted to ask David Morgan and Dennis Nyberg to act as Youth Secretaries for the Fellowship.

David Morgan, a native of Wake Forest, North Carolina, will act as Youth Secretary for North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia. He has just recently left the position of assistant to the Editor of The Biblical Recorder, the Baptist state periodical of North Carolina.

Dennis Nyberg is a student at Hamline University, St. Paul, Minnesota, who will give part time to the work of the Fellowship. He has been active in the National Council of Methodist Youth and the Pacifist Action Fellowship. He will work in Minnesota and several adjoining states.

From the Youth Field

In many parts of New York and Pennsylvania there are individual F.O.R. members who, living in small towns, know no other pacifists, and consequently are not members of any group. The need of these individuals for fellowship, study, and work with others of like mind is obvious. It is my hope that these scattered members will write me, at 2929 Broadway, New York City, giving me nearby communities where they could attend meetings of an F.O.R. group. Already it has been possible to bring together scattered pacifists. I hope many more will soon become more active F.O.R. members in this way. So far, the response to my request for information about Fellowship groups in each community has been excellent, but there are still many places in New York and Pennsylvania that have not been heard from. In order to render more effective service it is necessary for me to know the situation in every community. I would like to have the membership list of each Fellowship group.

DUDLEY J. STROUP,
New York-Pennsylvania
Youth Secretary

In seeking to extend aid to all C.O.'s in Indiana, the Indiana Fellowship of Reconciliation is working out with the state Director of Selective Service a plan for providing counsellors in each county. Men are being asked to serve on one of two bases: (sympathetic to the C.O.) as informal advisers known to the Board as available, or as officially appointed and sworn associate members of Advisory Boards with specific duties with C.O.'s. Counsellors have been secured for approximately one-third of Indiana's ninety-two counties, and others are being sought.

ROBERT BELCHER,
Indiana Youth Secretary

Things are happening in the South. Youth is building for peace. Here are some of the more important developments. Greensboro, N. C., is a center of activity. On Sunday, February 23rd, a group of pacifists from five colleges in the city had an all-day, inter-racial retreat at a nearby camp site, with an F.O.R. speaker. There is a Methodist group planning a furniture-repair work project. The nearest to an F.O.R. group is the one meeting regularly on the Guilford College campus—they're looking for a project, too. Nashville is active also. The F.O.R. youth group had a fine retreat with Kirby Page on February 7th at Fellowship House. And the Belmont group is fasting once a week. Chapel Hill, North Carolina is the scene for a new pacifist group, loosely knit at present, but out of which may emerge a strong F.O.R. unit. And in nearby Raleigh, a revival of a pacifist group is imminent. I've had many fine speaking opportunities and discussions, from North Carolina to Arkansas, and am hoping to place speakers in two new conferences next summer.

TARTT BELL,
South Central Youth Secretary

Our Refugee Neighbors

WE are very happy to report that our Committee has been instrumental in securing a college scholarship for the second semester for a young girl originally from Czechoslovakia who recently came from France.

Ever since the Fall of 1938 we have been working to bring to this country Mr. and Mrs. T., a couple who have had a precarious existence in Germany because he is an Aryan and she is Jewish. Her sister and brother-in-law already here have become good friends of members of the Committee. Another sister and her husband whose affidavit was secured by this Committee came to New York about a year ago. We have been sharing the anxiety of these relatives for the T's. Now at last the affidavit signed by one of our members has been accepted by the Consul and the word has come that the T's can emigrate as soon as $600 is deposited for their travelling expenses. In expectation of this news we have for months been keeping some of the contributions sent to the Committee from F.O.R. members all over the country. We can now advance a part of the $600. The rest the relatives will find.

We have had generous gifts which assure the passage money for the two outstanding F.O.R. members now in southern France for whom affidavits have already been given. But there are also other people for whose passage money the Committee feels responsible. One such couple are the P's, sponsored by the Friends, and waiting long for the affidavits we were finally able to send. We trust that Mr. P. has been released from prison and that soon he and his wife will be ready to emigrate. Unless more money is sent in we will not be able to meet the needs of the P's and others like them who, in privation and suffering, are waiting for their release from hopeless conditions.

In the October issue of Fellowship we appealed to our readers for an affidavit for H., young journalist, designer and mechanic, whose brother, Dr. Y., an F.O.R. member, is in this country. After an affidavit was promised we lost trace of H. In desperation he had left home for Palestine and none knew where he was. We transferred his affidavit to someone we could then locate who needed it quickly. Will one of our readers sign for this young man who has suffered so much and who we believe could easily make his own living in this country? Affidavits are still needed as much as passage money.

News From the Field

REPRESENTING the Richmond, Virginia F.O.R., Rev. W. Harold Rowe and Rev. Charles A. Maddry went to Washington on January 22nd where they interviewed several members of Congress and attended the hearings on the Lease-Lend Bill. Following closely after the National Christian Mission, and inspired by it, a Fellowship group was organized in Louisville, Kentucky, on January 28th with Rev. Ralph M. Holdeman, the Convenor, and Elizabeth Hartsfield, the Secretary. The twenty-one persons present planned after the first few meetings to sub-divide into small cells according to neighborhoods. This group, some of whom live across the river in Indiana, promises to become one of our most alert branches.

Kirby Page recently spoke to about 200 at an open meeting of the Nashville F.O.R. He was also the speaker at a regional F.O.R. meeting in Richmond, Virginia on February 21st and met with the Charlottesville group on February 18th.

Work projects have occupied the attention of a number of Fellowship members in the South during the past few months. The Wake Forest, North Carolina peace fellowship has been helping Boy Scouts in the community to build a hut; and each member of the Charlottesville F.O.R. has been assigned a child by the local juvenile court to advise and befriend; the Austin, Texas group has continued its work on the waiting room of the welfare agency and has reached the painting stage. Beginning during the Christmas holidays, Nashville youth members have almost finished renovating a kitchen and pantry at Bethlehem Center, a Negro community house. Those who have had a part in these projects testify that they involve real labor, but that they are fun and are worth while. There isn't a community that doesn't offer unlimited need for other such projects, and we hope that many more will be undertaken.

Remember of pacifist library. Books are loaned for a month without fees. Keep reading and get others to do so.

News from the Rural Field

LOCATION of the Rural Headquarters of the Secretary is big news, we think—Merom, Indiana, the home of Merom Institute, which is not pacifist, but sympathetic, and seeking an answer to many rural problems. In all my "seeking" I haven't found a place which "struck home" as Merom has. Director Shirley Greene and his staff are Fellowship members, and are vi-

SPEAKING on "Good News for Prophets of Peace," Allan Knight Chalmers made a superb contribution to the annual meeting of the Chicago Fellowship. The newly elected Chairman of the Chicago group, Albert Buckner Coe, has given new impetus to local work. Alice Shaffer, recently returned from Quaker relief work in Berlin, also spoke at the annual meeting.

The National Council of Methodist Youth held its annual meeting here February 6-9, with numerous F.O.R. members attending.

Dates for the long-awaited Mid-West F.O.R. Conference have been set for April 25-27 at Merom Institute, Merom, Indiana, Congregational rural center which is the new home of Carl Landes. Completely cooperative, hence, unusually low in price, this Conference is expected to set a new pattern for our members. Further details will be announced later.

Kirby Page is giving a most generous bloc of his time to the Mid-West F.O.R. for a series of meetings in which a special appeal will be made to support our organization. These conferences will be patterned after a similar series which were so successful in stimulating support for the American Friends Service Committee through the Eastern states. March 19-24, he is tentatively scheduled for Chicago, Elgin, Naperville, Champaign-Urbana, Springfield—all in Illinois; St. Louis and Columbia, Missouri. April 14-22, Kirby Page is expected to cover Beloit, Madison, Milwaukee, Sheboygan, La Crosse, Twin Cities, Duluth, Superior and Chicago. This interesting experiment merits genuine support!

The Mid-West Secretary has started an intensive travel schedule which will continue until the end of Spring. It includes visits to the Kansas State Conference, McPherson, March 14-15; Nebraska State Conference March 7-10, and other stops throughout the entire region.

The Mid-West committee will convene March 18th to discuss problems on the agenda for the National Council meeting.

tally interested in our program. We see the opportunity of supplementing each other's programs.

Recent trips have taken me into Iowa, Nebraska, Ohio and Illinois. In March I hope to take in the Nebraska and Kansas conferences, and then spend some ten days in Kansas and Oklahoma, if possible.

PREVENTING prejudice from being turned into persecution is one of the chief concerns of Pacific Coast members these days. Improvement in race relations is something which we have all been working for, but now, because of the war situation, more of our energies must be thrown into cultivating friendship between Oriental-Americans and Caucasian-Americans. On February 1st seventy-five representatives of educational, civic and religious groups of five races met in San Francisco's International Institute for Service and Information to Foreign-Born People to seriously consider the question. A direct result of the strained relations between Japan and America—the dilemma of the Japanese Americans—was of greatest concern. Three hundred thousand Japanese, almost half of them American citizens, are affected. If the two nations should go to war they would be in a very difficult position.

Additional conferences are being planned for other Pacific Coast cities. For immediate action many groups can follow the practice of youth members in Los Angeles in arranging a worship service in conjunction with a breakfast on Sunday mornings with members of several races present. It is also suggested, among other ways of helping in this situation, that articles in magazines and newspaper be written on the subject; work to eliminate race discrimination and abuse in business and social circles; the formation of a national advisory or sponsoring committee of well-known people to give stability to the work, etc.

It is hoped that Muriel Lester will speak at Fellowship meetings in Portland, Seattle and Los Angeles. She has definite engagements with the Sacramento chapter for public meetings on March 16th, and will also address an F.O.R. dinner meeting in Berkeley on March 11th.

Eldon Durham, former Union Theological Seminary student, is Assistant Director at the Alternative Service Camp in the San Dimas Experimental Forest. Many Fellowship groups are now engaged in the work of assisting local Selective Service Board Chairmen in choosing associate members to Advisory Boards—persons who understand the viewpoint of the C.O. A leaflet on the subsistence-community, with reprints of articles by Aldous Huxley and John Middleton Murry, is available at the Pacific Coast office.

The San Diego chapter has taken cooperative responsibility for the resettlement of a refugee family which has come to America from the Sudetenland. Lodging and food will be provided by members until the family becomes self-supporting. Other Fellowship groups are urged to consider a similar project.

Dear Mrs. Page:

Claims 9382-83

Your letter of February 24 addressed to our Fullerton office has been referred to this office for attention.

In checking your policy we find that we are privileged to carry 50% retention collision insurance which has not as yet been converted. If you care to convert your insurance as the result of this accident, kindly forward your check in the amount of $14.45 which will cover the conversion. We can then forward check to the Whitney Avenue Garage in payment of their bill covering the repairs to your car.

Since there has been a property damage claim filed against you as the result of this accident it will be necessary for us to have a more complete report of the accident from the driver of your car. If you will give us his permanent address we will have an adjuster call upon him to take his report and will handle the matter of the property damage claim direct with the claimant. Since we are anxious to bring this matter to a close we would appreciate a reply by return mail.

Yours very truly

Dear Kirby:-

It seemed good to hear from you again. It seems funny that you should be a grandfather at the time when I have children, the youngest of which is little over a month old and the next about 3 years old. However, I suppose I am the one that is out of line because Devere Allen and a good many of my other friends are also grandfathers. It was good of you to take time out of your busy life to write. I often think of you and wonder how you are getting on. Of course, I hear indirectly through Red Schaal.

I want to express my appreciation for the wonderful work you are doing across the country. The best of luck to you !

Mayor Outlines Expected City Improvements

TERMS OUTLOOK FOR YEAR BEST IN DECADE

review of the accomplishments of the administration during 1940 and an enumeration of improvements expected this year highlighted Corro's annual message to the Common Council last night. The mayor called upon Uticans to be optimistic about their city. He gave as an example of those who "can be done" when the city was a 1941 budget was taken over for the year.

He pointed out that the city's financial position is that of a man who told his wife, "I can be done, but I can't be done."

Leaders of Council of Churches Lenten Conference

PAGE OUTLINES CHRISTIAN ROLE IN WORLD CRISIS

"Keep America out of war, out of preparedness for war and away from helping anybody else to wage war," Kirby Page, evangelist and author, advised last night in Central Church as he outlined the steps he said Christians should take in the world crisis.

Page pointed to the mistakes made in the peace treaty of 1919 and admonished that with American liberty, ideals and values in jeopardy, Americans must overcome evil with good.

Offers Four-Point Program

He proposed a four-fold policy of mercy to include the sharing of food with the hungry, the sharing of medicine and skill with the afflicted, the sharing of economic resources with the victims of war, and the sharing of political strength with the victims of anarchy and chaos.

"War is wrong and suicidal and destructive," Page asserted, "and when it ends, the world will be scourged with ruin, sickness, pestilence and plague, with inflation, with a civilization of vengeance and brutality and economic depression."

"If 20 years ago we had realized our Christian duty of overcoming evil with good, the German Republic would still be alive, there would be no Hitlerism and that country would be one of the greatest nations in the world committed to peace."

Must Risk Lives for It

"We must put our trust in this way of life and trust in it as some men do in armies; risk our lives for it as some risk their lives on battlefields, and be prepared for the consequences as those who do not fear the consequences of war," Page declared.

He spoke three times yesterday in Central Church on the general theme of the place of Christians in a world at war. He spoke under the auspices of the commission on international goodwill of the Utica Council of Churches.

The Rev. Russell S. Brown, pastor of Central Church, presided. The Rev. George M. Stockdale, Clinton, gave the invocation.

Text of Mayor's Message

To the Honorable Common Council:

In the past it has been my privilege to present my annual report to your honorable body at the last meeting of the year. This year I purposed to do so because I felt it would be better to do so before the budget was adopted by the Council. I am sure that this is the best time to do so.

816 for ash contract, $57,840 for garbage contract, $65,000 for refunds of taxes and assessments and $20,000 for discount on prepayment of taxes and street cleaning, $36,089, and street lighting, $170,000, are also beyond any control of the Board of Estimate. Hence out of a total of $6,232,919, the sum of $4,122,701 was beyond the control of the Board of Estimate. In other words, over 65 per cent of the expenditures of the budget were beyond the control of the budget making board.

This does not take into consideration the Bureaus of Fire, Health and Police in the Department of Public Safety, but it does show that the city is in a very bad financial position.

Here is a great opportunity for Utica and Uticans. Utica will be able to place these properties back on the tax rolls, Uticans will be able to purchase real estate at a real advantage to themselves. Therefore, let us all take the slogan "It can be done."

position generally at the end of this year than they did at the beginning of the year. This better feeling is in evidence in nearly all parts of the country but, particularly, of course, in the large cities close to defense industries."

Says Estimate Not Excessive

Now we are certainly close to defense industries—and I don't think we are unlike other cities throughout the country. Therefore, in view of the fact that we consulted real estate experts, I do not think we were excessive in our estimate when we placed a figure of less than one-sixth the assessed valuation of all these properties.

Here is a great opportunity for Utica and Uticans. Utica will be able to place these properties back on the tax rolls, Uticans will be able to purchase real estate at a real advantage to themselves. Therefore, let us all take the slogan "It can be done."

for Utica in 1941. The city is in a very bad financial position. The city is in a very bad financial position.

Utica has three of the 50 New York State banks which are more than 100 years old.

They are the First Bank & Trust Company, 129 years old; the Oneida National Bank & Trust Company, 105 years; and the Savings Bank of Utica, 102 years. The First Bank is the 10th oldest in the state.

The First National Bank of Cooperstown is 111 years old. The Herkimer County Trust Company, Little Falls, is 108, and the National Bank of Vernon, 102, indicating longevity characteristic of Central New York banks.

These figures appear in the March issue of the National Bankers Monthly. 50 New York banks more than 100 years old and 2 in the United States.

Doctor Page, I hope this is O.K. I asked that the Meeting in Louisville be as late as possible. You will see that they have been successful in putting it as late as 12:30.

It was a treat to be with you and Mr Peak yesterday.

Mr. W. Bruce Strother

Covington, Ky.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter of March 5 regarding Dr. Page's Conference in Louisville.

Immediately after talking with you Wednesday, I 'phoned Rev. Holdeman who advised me he had talked with Rev. Short and Rev. Short had advised he would not be able to undertake the sponsoring of such a Conference at the present time due to lack of time. So the F.O.R. Group has gone ahead with the plans and the final meeting will be held in Trinity Temple Methodist Church Friday evening. MAR. 14th.

At the present time the set-up is as follows:

12:30 P. M. Convocation at University of Louisville.

6:30 P.M. -Vespers at Presbyterian Seminary

(Dr. Page will have the evening meal there.)

8:00 P. M. Public Meeting at Trinity Methodist Church.

Rev. Holdeman tells me he has not yet been able to contact the Baptist Seminary President but it is hoped that a meeting might be arranged with them during the afternoon if Dr. Page would want to consider speaking the fourth time.

Upon his arrival Dr. Page is to contact Harry Cohen of U.Of L.
Telephone - MA 1149 M or call him at University of Louisville
Cardinal Office if he cannot be reached at the other number.

All meals e'tc. will be provided and it is our plan to take an offering at the evening session.

As to the Alternative of Themes, it is evident that with the above set-up, Dr. Page will not be addressing the same group through-out the Conference. For that reason we feel that it should largely be left up to him as to what he would choose.
However, we are announcing for the evening session "Personal Religion and World Problems" and speaking before the Seminary Groups it would seem that something of the "Challenge of the Cross" would be most appropriate. And for the Convocation at U.of L. we feel that Dr. Page should have the final say in the choice of a subject before that group. All in all that seems to fit the "First Alternative of Themes" and we are wondering if it is quite alright to leave it just that way and announce only the one theme - "Personal Religion and World Problems"?

I hope this will give you all the information you need.
I am delighted that we will not have to rush Dr. Page as I can very easily see he will have a full week.

Thank you for helping us out even after we had waited so long but I do believe it will be a great day.

Yours very truly,

Elizabeth A. Hartsfield

My dear Dr. Papp,

I wish in some way
I could express my own personal appreciation of your speech in Penn
Yan on Thursday, March 6.
For many years I had hoped to hear you - but never really expected to have the opportunity. I am and have been a pacifist - ardently and completely for - regardless of arguments I can never reconcile killing & the spirit of hate with Christ and his way of living. Lately it has been

KEUKA COLLEGE, KEUKA PARK, NEW YORK

extremely difficult for me to be sure in my own thinking that I was right; but you strengthened my own convictions and gave me so many new and convincing statements with which to meet others that I am now a follower of the loving & peaceful Christ.

And then too, you gave me something which I as a young person without money & excess time could do. So often crusades for any cause ask for money, as - well there seems to be nothing else. But when Miss Bigwood asked what we called do you seemed so sure that personal & serious group discussions strengthening our own life & thinking & that of our friends would really be of same value. That I feel as if I am "doing something" for the most vital cause in the world.

Regardless of their marriage news from the Senate - I still believe in & will work for an ultimate world peace.
Thank you a gain.

Dear Kirby:

It is with a feeling of shame that I realize almost a week has gone by since the copy of your new book reached me. It came when I was deep in the proofs of Mr. Eddy's new book, and you know what that means. I lived, ate, slept, and breathed proof for a couple of weeks and have had no time for anything else.

I know I am going to enjoy reading LIVING PRAYERFULLY and I am deeply grateful to you for sending it to me. My library contains many of your books and Mr. Eddy's, and I read them with special pleasure in the knowledge that they have been the "gift of the author".

With every good wish and my deepest thanks,

Dear Mr. Page:

Your letter saying you could come to Mitchell, South Dakota, came yesterday. It happened that we were having a meeting of our Ministerial Association today and I was able to present it without delay.

It was unanimously voted to ask you to come from Morningside College at Sioux City for afternoon and evening meetings on April 4th. We are sorry that 5th or 6th is so close to our Palm Day services as to make it inadvisable to ask you to come for either of those dates. We are assuming that you will be driving from Sioux City to Mitchell in order to have an afternoon meeting.

Our group has asked me to ask you how you prefer to have the schedule arranged. It would appear to us that it might be well to have an afternoon meeting, a dinner meeting at about 6:15 and an evening meeting at 8:00. We are wondering if you would think it advisable to have ministers, other religious leaders, and college professors as a dinner group or would it be better to try to secure a sizable number at the dinner? We could do it either way. Or, do you prefer that we do not have a dinner meeting?

We would like to have you use your conference on "Personal Religion and World Problems".

Our ministerial group will be glad to get behind your coming and we endeavor to enlist the cooperation of a goodly number of our civic organizations and our college. Many remember your visit of last year and will be glad and anxious to hear you again.

Will you please feel very free to communicate with us and let us have any suggestions that will be helpful to us in arranging for your coming. We are anxious to do our full share to assure a highly successful conference.

With very best of well wishes I am,

Very sincerely,

Dear Kirby:

The time for your return home must be drawing near. I am wondering whether you will have a Saturday afternoon or a Sunday afternoon, preferably the latter, not too long after your arrival home you might meet with me and a group of from forty to sixty young graduates from the University. It will be time well spent, as heavy as the demands now are for your appearances. Will you please let me know whether or not this is out of the realm of reason.

Needless to state, I am looking forward with real anticipation to a long chat with you when you come back.

Dr. Page is an ordained minister in the Christian church, for many years has been an independent author and evangelist, spending about half his time preaching and lecturing, the other half writing.

At the present time, he is working on a volume, "Living Prayerfully," which will go to press soon. More than a million copies of his books and pamphlets have been sold. They have been translated into many languages.

Because of the sharp contrast existing at present between the Christian ideal and actual conditions, he is presented a program of action aimed at transforming the present social order by peaceful means into a society which more nearly approximates the Kingdom on earth.

Three Sessions Planned in Christian Church
Sunday.

Kirby Page

Kirby Page, world traveler, evangelist, and author of 19 books, will present addresses and lead discussions at a community forum to be held Sunday, March 16, in the First Christian church.

The Friends Peace committee and the Peace committee of the Christian church are cooperating in presenting the event.

The forum led by Kirby will deal with "Personal Religion and World Problems." The first session will begin at 2:30 p. m., when the topic will be "Living Prayerfully in an Age of Social Crisis."

"The Challenge of the Cross to Christian Patriots" will be the subject for the second session beginning at 4 p. m., while the third conference of the day will begin at 7:30 p. m. and will deal with the topic "What Kind of World Could Be Created If Christians Were Really Christian?"

Kirby, who received an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Drake university last June, began his current tour in January in the Southwest, swinging north and east through the central and eastern states, and now is en route back to Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas. Following his Indiana engagements, he will go to Illinois, and the day following his appearance here, he will conduct a similar forum at Earlham college in Richmond.

Kirby Page, Evangelist and Writer Speaks Today

Hossain Discusses World Situation

Oriental Scholar Points Out Need for Human Cooperation, In Address Monday.

At a special assembly on Monday Dr. Syud Hossain, professor of Oriental civilization and world civilization at the University of Southern California at Los Angeles, declared, "Peace cannot come unless we build on new foundation. The whole system, political and economic, has broken down."

Tracing the course of European history from Napoleon to Hitler, Dr. Hossain showed that peace has never been long lasting. Around the turn of the century it was evident that the attempted establishment of a balance of power was becoming ineffective. Then came World War I and the Treaty of Versailles.

"There has not been a solitary day of peace in Europe during the two decades of the post war generation," the speaker stated. "Everyone knew the war would be resumed." At present the aggressor nations are in battle with the two empires which together control more than one half of the world's vital resources, Britain and France. "Those who live by the sword shall perish by the sword." History has shown this to be true up to the present. Even now we see the forces of England and France scattered and powerless in many respects, said Dr. Hossain.

Our task, urged the speaker, is to "help bring about a new organization of the world based on human cooperation."

Following his address Dr. Hossain answered questions asked him by the various listeners.

As his first name indicates, Syud Hossain is a lineal descendant of Mohammed and comes of an aristocratic family whose Persian ancestors settled in India and for generations were among the premier nobility of the land.

He has the distinction of having been an editor in three countries, India, England, and America.

In India he was editor of the Bombay Chronicle and the independent of Allahabad, two of the foremost daily newspapers.

In London he edited the official organ of the Indian National Congress, and in New York for four years he edited the magazine described by the most distinguished English language.

He began his career in journalism, following in the footsteps of his father who was one of the best offices

Snapshot Contests Winners Chosen

POWER, PARKS, PARKER AND CURLISS RECEIVE PRIZES.

On February 28, after a long deliberation and much discussion, the judges of the 1941 Snapshot Contest made their final decisions which chose the winning snapshots and consequently the winning contestants. From the 63 potential winners, four pictures were finally chosen as superior to all others submitted. With great difficulty the judges adjusted the three prizes to the four outstanding contestants, doing so according to the merits of their pictures. The final decision conceded to Bashford Power the first prize of one 1941 Stespean. The second prize of $1.25 refund on the purchase of a 1941 Stespean was awarded to Charles Parks. Susie Anna Parker and Edith Curliss were awarded the third prize of $100 refund, the prize to be divided equally between the two winners.

The Stespean staff wishes to thank all those who contributed to the success of this contest, and desires to reaffirm its statement that all pictures submitted will be returned except those the staff chooses to use in its 1941 Stespean.

WORLD TRAVELER MAKES CHAPEL ADDRESS; ALSO AFTERNOON AND NIGHT APPEARANCES.

Kirby Page, internationally known social evangelist, spoke to the students and faculty in the college auditorium this morning. This afternoon he will meet with faculty and student leaders at 4:00, and at 7:00 this evening he will speak at the Methodist church. The public is invited to hear Mr. Page tonight.

The author of 20 volumes and 13 pamphlets, Mr. Page seeks to interpret the meaning of Christianity in personal life and in international, racial, economic, and political affairs. More than a million copies of his books have been sold.

"Living Prayerfully," his latest book, has just been released from the press. It is on sale at the college book store. Among his best known books are "Living Creatively", "Jesus or Christianity", "The Personality of Jesus", "Individualism and Socialism", and "National Defense." He was editor of "The World of Tomorrow" from 1924 to 1934, and editor of the "Christian Century" during 1935.

A world traveler, he has crossed the ocean 20 times and has visited 35 countries. He and Mrs. Page visited in the home of Mahatma Gandhi in India, and Kagawa in Japan. They were entertained by President and Madame Chiang Kai-shek in China, had interviews with the prime minister of Japan, the foreign minister of Turkey, President Queson of the Phillipine, and were received by the King of Iraq. Mr. Page has traveled with Sherwood Eddy in evangelical campaigns among students in America, China, Japan and Korea.

He has spoken at 300 colleges and universities and hundreds of churches throughout the United States. Earlier this week Mr. Page addressed groups at the University of Kentucky and Transylvania College at Lexington, and at Kentucky Wesleyan College at Winchester.

start writes me that, the appalling damage apart, this phase of the attack has actually had a good psychological effect on Londoners. It offers an opportunity to all of doing something, and so relieves the nervous strain. Incendiary hunting has become a kind of new sport, and men, women and children, armed with sandbags and stirrup-pumps, rush to it with zest. Now, under compulsion, all business premises,

Churchmen Back Malvern Program

Episcopal League Attacks Profit System
—Plan Program for America—
'Cells' for Study and Prayer

(Special Correspondence)

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Feb. 25.—The Malvern manifesto, issued in January by a large number of English churchmen at the conclusion of a conference convened by the Archbishop of York, was enthusiastically endorsed and supplemented at a meeting of American Episcopalians held in New Haven, Feb. 23-24, at the call of the Church League for Industrial Democracy. Attended by approximately 350 Episcopalians from all parts of the country, many of them prominent in church life, the meeting affirmed that the Malvern manifesto contains a program for immediate Christian social action on the part of the entire church and charged the executive committee of the C. L. I. D. with the responsibility of perfecting machinery to carry it out. A committee headed by Paul Shultz of Boston was named to work out a plan for Christian "cells" throughout the church, along the lines suggested by Archbishop Temple. These cells will not only study the Malvern manifesto and its implications for America and the world, but will likewise be called upon to act "in public and political life, both local and national, and in trade unions and other bodies" in the light of this far-reaching pronouncement.

God's Reign Here and Now

The New Haven conference opened with a service attended by about 500 people in Trinity Church. Frederick C. Grant of the Union Seminary faculty declared that "our world is crying for a concrete, practical plan which will save us from the social chaos that now threatens the whole human race" and stated that the Malvern manifesto was the answer to this challenge on the part of a large section of the Church of England. "When we say 'the Kingdom of God,'" Dr. Grant declared, "we are not talking about 'heaven' and neither was our Lord. He was talking and we should talk about the reign of God in this present world, here and now as well as hereafter." This central Christian conviction, he stated, is thoroughly and essentially social, and is the one thing needful for the church today. The work of the church, he affirmed, must be largely "secular," but it must be secular work done with a sacred motive. "Let Christians enter politics and business. The weakness of democracy and the weakness of the church result from our failure to carry over our religious principles into the life we live every day." This, he said, the Malvern manifesto does.

Outlawry of World Poverty

Following the service the conference convened in the parish house of Trinity Church where the keynote address was delivered by Miss Mary van Kleeck, director of industrial studies of the Russell Sage Foundation. To the question, "What

Not Yet Too Late!

TIME YET REMAINS for specific action on the Lease-Lend Bill. The vote is not likely before March 15 or later. Opposition in the Senate grows. Senators in the doubtful list have swung over in opposition to the bill. Some heretofore considered for the bill are wavering.

A groundswell of opposition is felt through the country. The public is just beginning to sense the true nature of the bill. Lethargy and the sense of futility are slipping off as it becomes clear that action is possible.

Even should the Lease-Lend Bill pass, the country must mobilize to prevent the entrance of the United States into the war in Asia or Europe. Power to make war should rest in the hands of Congress. The public must insist upon this or lose its democratic government and run the risk of war.

Act now and continue action. Organize church and community committees. Mobilize support for the duration of the crisis confronting America. Oppose the entrance of the United States into war. Resist the drift leading from democracy toward dictatorship. Insist upon peace aims being adopted and proposals for peace presented.

America's entry into the war is not inevitable. It is not desirable. Its vast resources and influence should be used now to support advance steps in world cooperation toward justice and peace.

NEW CASTLE, IND., THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1941

No. 25

MARCH IS SPIRITUAL LIFE AND STEWARDSHIP MONTH

Morning Worship Services Growing

Our morning worship services with emphasis on spiritual life are growing steadily. It would seem that men and women are turning to the church. The church is God's house and the meeting place of God's people. Let him who comes Sunday after Sunday feel not only the need for spiritual food, but by act, word and deed, fulfill his obligation to his neighbor and to his God. These are trying times for men's souls. We should help. We can help by lifting common prayers for suffering peoples, for our neighbors and for the church.

Evangelism

Every member of the church is urged to turn in the names of those who should or might become members of the church. It will aid much if the names carry a note regarding the prospect and the reason why he might be considered a prospect.

Classes are assuming their obligation in winning others to Christ and His church. We all rejoice in the number who are coming Sunday by Sunday into our church.

Prayer Services

Much good is being wrought through class prayer meetings which are being held. The Berean class has set a goal of 10 new members for the church and an attendance of 75 for Easter Sunday morning. The Gleaner class has set a goal of 75 for Easter morning. Their goals for new members will be announced later. The other goals will be announced in next week's edition of the Builder.

Home Prayer Services

Home prayer services have been arranged. Look for the home that is nearest you and attend. Try to let your host and hostess know, if you can, that you are coming. Bring with you names of those

NOTICE!

The names of those who have their pledges paid up until the end of the year will be published in the Christian Builder. Our church year ends March 31. Pay your pledge as soon as possible. Paying your pledge will enable the church to pay all accounts before the end of the year.

Kirby Page To Speak Sunday, March 16th

Again, Kirby Page, ordained minister of the Christian church, comes to New Castle. Mr. Page will speak on "Personal Religion and World Problems." The addresses and discussion periods will be at 2:30 p. m., 4:00 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. When Mr. Page was here last time the church's capacity was taxed. Do not miss this opportunity. He is being brought here by the Community Open Forum.

Mr. Page is author of nineteen volumes and sixteen pamphlets on international, economic, social and religious questions. His works have been translated into German, French, Dutch, Swedish, Danish, Greek, Bulgarian, Spanish, Chinese and Japanese. In addition, his books have been published in England and in India. More than a million copies of his books and pamphlets have been sold. His latest volume, "Living Prayerfully," will soon be off the press.

At the Universities

Mr. Page has spoken at 300 colleges and universities, including the following: University of Virginia, University of Texas, Harvard University, Birmingham-Southern University, Stanford University, University of Michigan, Southern Methodist University, Atlanta University, University of Montana, Wake Forest College,

Home Prayer Services

The following will show the places for the Home Prayer Services which will be held in every section of our church. Attend one of these prayer services.

Section A will meet with Mrs. Olive Ochiltree, 1018 New York avenue, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Section B will meet with Mrs. Lulu Myers, 2305 Spring street, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Section C will have two meetings, one with J. R. Leakey, 920 Indiana avenue, Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and one with Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Rawlings, 317 Bundy avenue, Friday evening at 7:30.

Section D will meet with Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Thompson, 1920 Shopp avenue, on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Section E will meet with Mr. and Mrs. James VanOsdol, 1221 Webster avenue, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Section F will hold two meetings, one Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith, 1105 South 21st street and one on Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes, 1329 Q avenue.

The rural sections will meet Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Harter, R. R. 4.

These prayer meetings are being sponsored by the Board of Elders, with Will Smith as leader.

CONTRIBUTION ENVELOPES ARE NOW READY

Get your envelopes at the rear of the church on Sunday morning. Our secretary, Miss Helen Mahoney, will be there with her assistants. They will have pledge cards and envelopes for everyone. If you have not made a pledge, do so. Many to whom the minister has spoken are making pledges. If you wish to increase your contribution, call for a new pledge card.

INCREASE YOUR PLEDGE

Several have taken opportunity of the closing year to increase their pledges. One church in the southwest has reported over a 10 per cent increase in their pledged amount. Everyone is working—how better show your gratitude than by increasing your pledge to the church?

Activity is only beautiful when it is holy, when it is spent in the service of that which passeth not away.

Sacrifice

A Word—Or An Experience?

Pre-Easter week has come to be a time of genuine spiritual renewal in many of our missionary groups, as they have fellowship with Jesus through prayer and meditation in those days commemorating his approach to the supreme sacrifice.

Our fellowship with Him this year will not be complete unless we can draw into our circle a living realization of the suffering and sacrifices of Christians around the world. We dare not be content with "going through the motions," when fellow Christians are growing into His likeness through experiences that test them far beyond our ken or understanding.

Those returning from China tell us that our Chinese Christians have come through their agonizing suffering into the deepest understanding of the real message of the cross and into the truest fellowship with a sacrificing Christ. Such a witness must make our hearts sensitive to our world's suffering and need.

The third and last service of the Easter Week of Prayer series, "And There's a Cross for Me," is climaxed by the sacri-

Dr. Kirby Page,

Dear Dr. Page,

Greetings to you! Would it be possible for you to visit DePauw for a day while in Indiana? If I knew a date on which you could come, in case you would be willing to do so, I would like to see if I might not be able to arrange with the school to have you this spring. The students are very much alive to the human scene now and we would all like to have you again in our midst. Please send me your charge for a day with us so that I can arrange for that in case we can find a date when you can come and when our schedule is open. It would seem that some date between now and the twelfth of April would be better than a date after that time until the first of May. The last half of May is not a good time on account of the closing of the school year.

I am very solicitous for what is happening in the lives of many of our young students who have not yet had experience or opportunity to know how to relate themselves to these days.

Please give greetings from us to Dr. and Mrs. Beck. I send this letter to you in his care since I feel that it will reach you most directly. I have written to Chicago but they were unable to arrange any dates and asked me to write directly to you. If you are able to come to Greencastle, we will be happy to have you as a guest in our home. Mrs. Hildebrand, Ruth, and Esther join me in sending to you our sincere regards.

Cordially yours,

You are always doing nice things for your friends and I was reminded of this again when I received a copy of your book "Living Prayerfully". However, you failed me in one respect in that the book was not autographed. I do hope that the first time you are in New York you will do that for me.

Many thanks and with deep appreciation.

Dear Kirby,

Do you have any information on dates when you will be free to come to Iowa City? We would like to have you very much.

For the past school year ~~nxxxxxxx~~ nine of us, until recently, eight, have been living together in a disciplined missionary brotherhood. We have been doing the work cooperatively, helped out across and did manual labor on a cooperative store, repaired toys at Christmas, had week end work camps at Scattergood, the refugee hostel, have been doing consistent work for inter-racial understanding, brought speakers to the campus, shared in ideas about more effective leadership in re to our various campus responsibilities. Recently there has been a bus strike we have had meetings to get the facts of both sides to the public, I spoke in favor of arbitration at a large public mass meeting, we believe the NLRB is going to come in, we have just had a series of morning devotionals broadcasts over the radio.

Our fellowship has been so close and we have made discoveries about techniques and we believe a disciplined missionary fragment is necessary to carry us through the future. We would like to go out as itinerant missionaries during the summer going from community to community, spending a week at a time, first becoming sensitive to its needs, then putting on necessary programs, etc.

We have fellows who have had settlement house experience, work camps, student peace service, drama work and radio work, presidents and leaders in various foundations five lads who are going into the ministry, I have been to work camp and sps. We are sending out a load of correspondence on the general idea. We would like to have your suggestions on approaches to community groups, any contacts that might be valuable. I suppose you could not help us on that until we learned specifically what communities we were going to be in. You might know of ministers who would help support such a gang of fellows. We are going to write the Missions board of several churches to see about getting subsistence help.

We don't want to be completely tied to the Methodist caravans because we are a closely knit brotherhood, we have a definite approach toward disciplined missionary fellowships and brotherhoods, we preach repentance, humility, prayer, understanding, personal and social reconstruction, and uniting in Missionary brotherhoods for effectiveness and fellowship and growth. We also feel that the Student Peace Service Training would be very valuable for us. I want to contact peace groups and do occasional work on organizing for sacrificial giving to support C. O. camps.

We would appreciate all criticism, suggestion and advice that you have.

Yours in His service,

I am just back from a lengthy siege in the hospital and I find here the copy of "Living Prayerfully" which has come from you. I don't know how long it has been here nor how long, therefore, the delay has been in this letter to express my gratitude. I do warmly thank you for sending the book to me. It is a rich and beautiful work that you have done and many will be inspired by it.

Dear Dr. Page:

The committee on your coming to Sioux Falls has decided upon Thursday, April 3rd.

We understand the schedule of program to be afternoon and evening.
We are also trying to arrange for a dinner meeting to which the ministers and their wives and some of the college faculty will be invited. This latter meeting will be more intimate at which we would like to have you state the Pacifist viewpoint and its implications.

We think best to avoid such controversial subjects as Aid to England, and the Lend-Lease Bill, since our ministers are as usual divided on those subjects. Therefore, we suggest that you use the topics, "Living Prayerfully in an Age of Social Crisis", and "Practicing the Presence of God," or "Christianity's Answer to Totalitarianism".

We understand the terms to be a free-will offering at afternoon and evening sessions. Please inform me at the address below to time of arrival and any suggestions which you would like to add.

If you will indicate the type of room that you would like to have at the Hotel I can reserve it for you. Sometimes our city is crowded to capacity.

Please confirm this date immediately, since we must begin to advertise. Any additional folders which you might wish to send will be acceptable.

Dr. Kirby Page,
La Habra, California.

Dear Dr. Page:

I am enclosing a check for $ 22.40 which is to cover the cost of 14 of the books you sent me at $ 1.60 per book. I am keeping one book because someone may want to buy it. If not, I shall return it to you a little later.

We greatly appreciated the three days you gave us in Tucson and I am sure much good was done. Because of some more articles in the paper by the local Legion commander regarding your record as compiled by Elizabeth Dilling, I wrote an article answering point by point the statements she made. I used some of the materials you had previously furnished us. Soon after that some woman came to my study with her husband. She began by saying "I am a good American." She objected to my criticism of Elizabeth Dilling and her book. After the conversation had progressed and she indicated that because Mrs. Dilling stated you were a Communist, you must be one, I asked her if she had ever heard you speak or had read anything you had written. She replied she had not. I then tried to get her to give me a definition of a communist. She was unable to do that. So I said: "Is it not rather unfair to call a man, whom you have never heard nor read by a name you cannot define?" She admitted that she was ignorant about some things. As she was leaving I asked her opinion of Bill No. 1776. She stated she was afraid she did not know what it was. I said: "The Lease Lend Bill." Again she plead ignorance. So I was mean enough to ask: "Since you say you are a good American, ought you not to know what is being debated in Congress and all over the country today?" She went out much more humble than when she came in. Perhaps I could have sold her one of your books if they had arrived by that time.

All who heard you were stimulated and inspired and I am certain much good was accomplished.

Sincerely,

Frank S. Williams ✓

Virginia Disciples Elect H. T. Huband

He Will Head Richmond Disciples
Council During New 1941 Term

RICHMOND, VA.—The Richmond Disciples Council held its annual meeting at Third Church, Mar. 2, the 109th anniversary of the beginning of the Disciples church in this city. C. C. Roberts, pastor of Hanover Avenue Church, made the principal address. Frederick W. Burnham, pastor of Seventh Street Church, conducted the installation service for the new officers: Henry T. Huband, president; C. C. Roberts, vice-president; Phyllis Brown, secretary; Alfred M. Blake, treasurer. C. B. Givens, retiring president, made a brief address.

Mrs. Charles K. Green Speaks

The offering for British Missions at the brotherhood fellowship meeting at Seventh Street Church, Feb. 23, was $120.87. Mrs. Charles K. Green, wife of the chairman of Home Missions for our British brethren, was the principal speaker. In a well-received address she told of the work of the British Disciples, and how they are carrying on in the face of a desperate situation. There are only 35 ministers for 200 churches, but the laymen have qualified themselves in a splendid way to preach, teach, and lead in various capacities. Pastor Burnham read greetings from a number of churches in the United States and Canada. Elder C. H. Morissett discussed the work of The United Society. Other Richmond churches observed Brotherhood Dinner on Feb. 19. Mrs. Green spoke at the Cowardin Avenue Church dinner and at the meeting of the Hanover Avenue Church. Several British children refugees in Richmond were guests at Battery Park Church.

Kirby Page in Richmond

Kirby Page, La Habra, Calif., widely known pacifist, lecturer, and Disciple minister, was in Richmond for two meetings, Feb. 21. He led a discussion group in Seventh Street Church in the afternoon and spoke at a regional fellowship dinner of the Fellowship of Reconciliation that evening. Following his evening address, on "What to Do About Maintaining Peace," he conducted an open forum in which many young persons gave expression to their views on peace and war, and on how to handle the problem of ministering to the starving and afflicted peoples in the Nazi-occupied countries of Europe. Mr. Page's insistent plea was to "keep out of the war business," not to have any part in it and not to help anyone else to do wrong. Mr. Page contended that the minds and emotions of people should be prepared for the right attitudes of brotherliness, love and peace, and, though victory may not come in one generation, gradually this view-point will be reflected in the minds of all peoples.

Incident to the meetings, many copies of Mr. Page's new book, Living Prayer, fully, were sold. This is a 500-page book upon which the Page family have been working for two years and enlarges upon Mr. Page's beliefs on the way to peace.

Mr. Page also delivered an address at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, on "Christianity and the War," on a program with Professor Charles Lowry of the Virginia Theological Seminary, Alexandria. A panel discussion led by the two speakers followed their addresses.

China Missionary Lectures

Robert Baird McClure, missionary to China, now on furlough, came to Richmond, Mar. 2, to give a number of lectures under the sponsorship of the recently re-organized Church Committee for China Relief, of which F. J. Wampler of the Virginia Medical College faculty is chairman. His first address was made to a joint session of the men's and women's classes of Seventh Street church school. Horace F. Sharp, of Seventh Street and R. C. Hawkins of Hanover Avenue Church are members of the Church Committee for China Relief.

The Y.M.C.A. of Richmond sponsored a lecture course on "Learning How to Teach," Jan. 23—Feb. 20, for Sunday school teachers, officers, and prospective teachers. Our Disciple churches sent young people to take this course instead of having a separate training school in Richmond this season, and planned to try to interest other communions in a cooperative school next spring or autumn. The text-book for this course was "Looking at Learning." Instructors were members of the faculty of the University of Richmond.

Two new state chairmen have been introduced to the women of Virginia: Mrs. S. M. Bedford, wife of the pastor of Euclid Avenue Church, Lynchburg, stewardship chairman; and Mrs. George Earle Owen, wife of the director of religious education for the Chesapeake area, as world chairman.

Federal Council Group Seeks Basis for Peace

The Federal Council of Churches has announced the names of 22 members to serve as a nucleus for its Commission to Study the Basis of a Just and Durable Peace. A meeting will be held in New York City, Mar. 21, to discuss the personnel of a larger Commission, and the group will plan a pamphlet analyzing both church and non-church proposals for a post-war international organization.

Seven other groups have been invited by the Council to name two members each: The International Council of Religious Education, Foreign Missions Conference of North America, Home Missions Council, National Council of Church Women, United Stewardship Council, Church Peace Union, World Alliance for International Friendship Through the Churches.

In Evangelistic Program

Battery Park Church began an evangelistic program, "Eight Weeks Before Easter With God," Feb. 16, using the themes suggested by our national headquarters with the central theme "Great Religious Convictions." Pastor H. G. Haney conducts the services. Henry Lee Robinson, religious director for state penal and correctional institutions, was guest speaker at the church on Feb. 16. He discussed his work in the field of correction.

Cowardin Avenue Church is also holding the "Eight Weeks Before Easter With God" program, Pastor Robert A. Cooper preaching. The services will culminate in a one-week meeting immediately after Easter, conducted by a former pastor of the church, F. W. Long, who is now at Clifton Forge. Two new young people's groups have been organized as part of the city-wide Christian Endeavor Union, a Junior group, sponsored by Mrs. R. A. Johnson, and an Intermediate group sponsored by Mrs. Cooper. The Senior group has been functioning for some time. Wilbur L. East and Joseph Lipscomb, deacons, and Mrs. Lucille Johnson and Frances Davenport, deaconesses, were ordained by Pastor Cooper and church officers on Jan. 19.

Religious Education Conference Held

George Earle Owen, director of religious education for the Chesapeake area, occupied the pulpit at morning services at Hanover Avenue Church, Feb. 16, and held a conference with adult leaders in the afternoon for the purpose of inaugurating a new adult project. This church has been chosen as a project center by the Department of Religious Education of The United Society. A new Hi-Tri organization has been formed with Mrs. E. P. Foxhall, sponsor, Elsie Jones, president. The young people of Tidewater District held a three-day youth fellowship meeting at Hanover Avenue, Feb. 28 and Mar. 2-3. Principal speakers during the conference were Harold W. Seever, pastor of Bainbridge Street Baptist Church, Richmond, and John A. Tate, state secretary of Virginia.

On Feb. 2, Rabbi Sidney M. Lefkowitz, assistant rabbi of Beth Ahabah Synagogue, occupied the pulpit of Colonial Place Church, speaking on "The Plight of the Jew in the World Today." Rabbi Lefkowitz was the third speaker to appear before this congregation in their annual institute covering six Sunday evenings. Pastor Clarence M. Brown conducted a Bible study course each Sunday evening during the institute.

Attendance Records

There are few records for punctuality equalling that of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lester of Stoneville church. Lucy and Myrtle hold a six-year perfect attendance record at the Sunday school; Ruby, a three-year perfect attendance record; Bessie, Hilda, and John have attended two years without missing; and Eleanor has not missed a Sunday for a year.

On Feb. 2, a reception was given to Pastor and Mrs. C. M. Gordon, First Church, Norfolk, in recognition of their

Dear Kirby,

Next week I shall be sending out my announcements to my 10,000 readers, at which time will go forth the notices of your book. Better prepare for an avalanche of orders.

I like the statement of E. Stanley Jones in the March 19th issue of the CHRISTIAN CENTURY: "What is America's Role in This Crisis". I had a lovely time with Sherwood Eddy when he spoke here in spite of the fact that we were at opposite poles ^{regarding} ~~regarding~~ America's ^{going} ~~going~~ into the war.

Dear Kisley:

Enclosed find money order for $8.00 in full payment of the consignment of books which you sent me sometime ago. It has not been hard to sell these books! In fact, so great has been the demand that I have even sold my own copy. Therefore, please send another consignment of five, that is if the original deal still holds, for I believe I can sell four more among my acquaintances. If your earlier deal is no longer to be secured, please send me a single copy anyway and I shall send $1.60 at once. However, the deal is preferable. Thanks for your cooperation in this matter.

Now that the school year is drawing rapidly to a close, let me remind you again that your services are needed at the Seminary here in San Anselmo. I know you would receive a ready response and I am looking forward to the possibility of having you address our student body at your earliest convenience. Please put a stop here into your 1941-42 Calendar if at all possible and let me know when you can come. Let me hear from you.

Give our best regards to your family. Do I understand that you are now a granddad?

Cordially yours,

Chuck Kulas

Dear Kirby:

This is a belated "Thank you" for the copy of "Living Prayerfully" which you sent Frances and me some weeks ago. I am using it daily, and find it the most stimulating, and at the same time the most quieting aid to devotion in difficult times that I have ever used. Words of appreciation flow readily from the pen, but they come from the heart, Kirby.

I have learned from Don Smucker, and from friends at McPherson College just a bit about your itinerary, but not enough to know when or if there

Dear Kirby Page,

Many thanks for your letter which was waiting for me when I reached here. It was certainly good news to hear that the two dates have been fitted into your itinerary.

I've written to both Charlie, my brother, and to Dr. Silver and you should hear from them immediately.

If you have any more open dates by all means let us know.

I'm still moving about though. I find it a little more difficult to make arrangements in this area than it was up in the Carolinas and Virginia. No news yet on my draft situation.

My very best regards,

Dear Kirby Page:

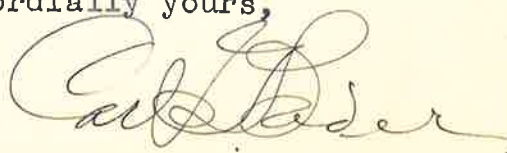

Your letter was forwarded to me here. I am extremely sorry for the delay and uncertainty this makes regarding the proposed conference. I am forwarding your letter to my successor at Wayne, Dr. Victor West. He will not have your address, so it will be necessary to get in touch with him from your end. I suspect that he is not of my opinion in social matters, and perhaps Rev. Wilbur Dierking (Presbyterian) or, if you need someone in close touch with the college administration, Rev. C. L. Eads, (Baptist) would give a more favorable response. Of course I may be mistaken.

But it is a delight to hear from you. I have been thinking of you a good deal of late. I was delighted to read the fine boost for your latest book in the Christian Advocate (Dr. Roy L. Smith) and plan to get it soon. I'd be happy to have you in my church here, which I am enjoying greatly, but fear you are not making towns without colleges on this trip. We are 33 miles from Kearney (Teachers College) and 53 from Hastings (Presbyterian College). Should you come this way, you have a standing invitation. We have a good congregation.

Mrs. Bader is in the hospital, but doing well. (Surgery)

My dear Mr. Page,

Unfortunately I was vacationing in St. Paul when your letter came. Thus I read it for the first time this morning and so am still trying to make arrangements. You may, however, count (I think) on this plan: an evening meeting, ^{Tuesday, April 1,} in the Collegiate Methodist Church, 2622 Lincoln Way, at 7:30 P. M. (the best time for students). If you will get in touch with me at the college or my wife at home when you arrive, I shall be pleased to take Mrs. Page and you to dinner. A dinner meeting is impossible for us next week. My wife recalls that you preferred to go to the hotel when you were last here; so we shall assume that to be your wish now unless we hear to the contrary. We are publicizing the topic: What Price Must Be Paid for the Preservation of American Democracy?

Sincerely yours,
Richard S. Wendell

Dear Mr. Page,

I am happy to tell you that we have sold four of the five copies of your book, "Living Prayerfully" which you sent us. You will be interested to know that the book was reviewed over the radio by Dr. Ralph Waddell, Minister of Education in the First Congregational Church. He has placed the book in the library.

I am asking the privilege of holding the fifth copy to sell and remitting you $8.00. This would mean a little more time. If you would allow us to settle our bill on or before three weeks from date, we should very much appreciate your courtesy.

Those who read your book here speak of it with highest praise. It is a very fine achievement.

Dear Sir:

Four weeks ago today you were in Reading for a day's engagement at which I attended. I took on consignment five of your books, LIVING PRAYERFULLY, and filled out the blank on condition that I would remit eight dollars ($ 8.00) within thirty days.

This time expires on Saturday the 29th. I have sold all the four books to students on the campus. In fact I didn't have to sell them, they sold themselves; I only put them on suitable display. However, two of the purchasers are students who must wait for the monthly "remittance" to make their payment. Since I am not able to advance their amount myself I am writing at this time to request a few days' grace before sending you the required amount.

I do not know whether you have heard of any results of your Reading visit - there is a little to report. The committee that met that evening is slowly making a program of action. Our college group is continuing its activity and is glad to acknowledge your help in inspiring and clarifying the issues. The recent passage of H.R. 1776 has not cooled our spirits; we are seeking other ways for the "spread of the leaven." All of us hope that the national leaders, like yourself, will continue to be the lights on the hilltop from which we can find a guiding way. Peace has less room for quitters than war has, and the distance to fall is greater. And the peace army has no parachute troops.
